

COUNTY OF GALVESTON

Retirement Seminars

You Asked. We Listened.

If you are thinking about retiring sometime in the near future or you just want more information regarding retirement with Galveston County then plan on attending one of the informative retirement seminars. Human Resources is working closely with representatives from Texas County & District Retirement System (TCDRS) and First Financial (the fine people who administer our Social Security opt-out plan) to offer you a chance to come out and discuss your options in person. This will help you get a good feel of what retirement might look like for you, get estimates on your monthly pension payment, learn how the medical plan works as a retiree and even how Medicare impacts your coverage.
